A LIST OF REFERENCES

PRESENTED BY

ThatAnkhLife.com

Peace,

This is an opportunity for our family members who do have the time and diligence to research, to help those of us who don't. We have created a list of books to help re-educate many of the suppressed information and mis-teachings in our life, and to reconnect with our history, family and ourselves.

This is by no means exhaustive, but we believe it is very comprehensive. The book lists includes reads for "non-readers" and kids, to advanced textbooks, ancient writings and detailed translations. It is encouraged that every family build a physical library. This collection will be used in establishing a new education curriculum for children and adults.

This reference ebook will be a "Live" document meaning it will continue to change and grow over time, you will be updated, and invited to redownload as the book evolves.

This book is most beneficial to the African descendants in North America because this particular group of people, have been cut off from their history, nature, and knowledge more than any other group in history. And much of this information is of African origin, as that is the origins of man and mankind.

But truth is truth, facts are facts and nature is nature, these understandings are beneficial to all organisms capable of understanding. And with that said, there was no precedent given to the race or nationality of the authors, but instead to the pertinence of the information.

Speaking of authors, most of the authors have other books that also deserve to be included on this list. We tried to use various factors to narrow down the list but we know some information resonates with each individual more than others, so please branch off into their other books.

We have attempted to link to the books for your convenience, as well as the audiobook when possible. We value your opinion and feedback so check our Blog to join in on the conversation.

MOST IMPORTANTLY, Share with the family.

Thank you and enjoy,
